

JANICE'S BIO

Janice Ferebee, MSW, is an internationally recognized author, speaker, and global female EMPOWERMENT EXPERT, with a Master of Social Work from the University of Pennsylvania's School of Social Policy & Practice (SP2). She is the founder & CWW (Chief Woman Warrior) of Ferebee Enterprises International, LLC, a global female empowerment social enterprise. With over 30 years' expertise, Janice has the distinction of being recognized by Oprah and ESSENCE Magazine for her award-winning GOT IT GOIN' ON® empowerment brand for girls of color (aka Got It Goin' On® WorldWide), and, she was the first African American Models Editor for Seventeen Magazine almost 40 years ago. She is a Stage IIb fallopian tube cancer survivor blessed with 25+ years of long-term recovery from drug and alcohol use. She has turned her personal and professional life experiences into tools to help women of color, and organizations and institutions that employ & serve them, find their voices and create blueprints for their lives; AND, parents, practitioners and leaders of girl-serving organizations, empower girls of color to build confidence and cultural pride, and, develop personal action plans for their lives.

Janice's authenticity and uncanny ability to connect with a wide range of global audiences has made her an engaging, sought after speaker on girls' social-emotional learning and personal development; women's empowerment, leadership and wellness - including women and cancer, and women in recovery; and, the FEREBEE FAMILY LEGACY, including great aunt, Dr. Dorothy Boulding Ferebee (who is featured in the National Museum of African American History & Culture). Janice has presented at events and conferences both nationally and internationally, including special appearances in South Africa. She has provided media commentary on radio and television, and is available to ENERGIZE your next event!

Ms. Ferebee is also a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the Mary McLeod Bethune Council House National Historic Site Advisory Commission, and, she is a Certified Docent for the historic Smithsonian National Museum of African American History & Culture (NMAAHC). She speaks to audiences around the world and it's been said that everyone who hears her leaves more uplifted than when they came. *"She brilliantly mixes her street-knowledge with her wit to successfully empower, educate and inspire!"

"I am committed to being of service to equip women & girls of color, with tools to LIVE THEIR LIVES OUT LOUD!"
